Charity Board Meeting

The Charity will meet Monday afternoon at the City Hall at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as there is business of importance to be looked after.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brooks of Chickasha spent Saturday in the city.

C. W. B. M. ENTERTAINED

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church was entertained at a most delightful social Friday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. W. W. Terry. This auxiliary is composed of several divisions and after a three months contest the losing division entertains with a social.

A program of unusual merit was given. The talks on "The Children's Work" by Mesdames Davis, Terry, Thompson, Schram Meyers and Bullock showed thorough preparation and convinced all present that this auxiliary has much real talent in its membership.

Music by Misses Gladys Ogle, Isla Davis and Lois Denny and a reading by Miss Eula Phares added much to the occasion. Mesdames Snodgrass and Thompson were captains in the Hidden Answer Quiz which proved to be exciting for those concerned.

The winning division, Mrs. Snodgrass, Chairman was presented with a missionary book "An Appeal of Medical Missions".

Delicious cocoa, whipped cream and wafers were served at the conclusion of the program.

This auxiliary enjoys a large membership with a steady growth, two names being added at this meeting.

The hostesses on this occasion were Mesdames Thompson, Davis Ogle, Keeler, Bates and Terry.

Presbyterian Church

Two weeks ago, a very interesting and helpful service was held under the auspices of the men of the church. Tomorrow morning a similar service will be conducted by the women of the church. It is with pleasure and confidence that we announce this service. Special music has been prepared for the occasion. May we not hope for a very large attendance?

S. V. Eait, Pastor.

"LAZY BILL"

W. B. Patton's newest play "Lazy Bill" is proving to be the best comedy success of the season and in the quaint character of Dr. Bill Hale, Mr. Patton is a delight, and is making more new friends and admirers than ever before.

It is a wonderfully satisfying artistic creation, and possesses all of the human qualities that are necessary to interest admiration. Good plays and good acting are so rare nowadays that everybody who cares for the stage at all should by all means see this meritorious performance at the Opera House one night only Wed. March 18.
